

MR ALAN ROSE AO

PRESIDENT

AUSTRALIAN LAW REFORM COMMISSION

Alan Rose was appointed President of the Australian Law Reform Commission on 23 May 1994 for five years.

Before taking up this position he had been successively:

1989-1994	Secretary to the Attorney-General's Department
1987-1989	Associate Secretary to the Attorney-General's Department
1986-1987	Secretary to the Department of Community Services
1982-1986	Deputy Secretary of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet

He was appointed an Officer in the Order of Australia in the 1994 Australia Day Honours List.

Mr Rose commenced his public sector career in January 1967 as a Commonwealth Public Service Board Administrative Trainee and was appointed at the end of that year to the Prime Minister's Department.

He lectured in law at the University of Queensland between 1971 and 1973 having graduated BA(1966) LLB(Hons)(1969) from the University of Queensland and LLM University of London (LSE)(1979) and was admitted as a Barrister of the Supreme Court of Queensland (1973).

He is also an Affiliate of the Securities Institute of Australia.

Mr Rose is a member of the Administrative Review Council, and in 1993 was elected to the Governing Council of the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law, Rome, for a five-year period. He is a member of the Board of the Constitutional Centenary Foundation, the Board of the Australian Legal Resources International, and the Advisory Board of the National Institute for Law, Ethics and Public Affairs.

Mr Rose is also a member of the Business and International Law Sections of the Law Council of Australia, the ACT Law Society, the Institute of Public Administration Australia, the Australian Institute of Administrative Law, the Australian Institute of Political Science, and the New South Wales Division of the Securities Institute of Australia.

June 1998